Dear NDMA Family,

Staff are working on a special project that we are looking forward to sharing with you soon. We are going to send a “photo book” of sorts, with each of us offering a message for children to help us stay in touch. I will start the process:

Dear NDMA Students,

I miss you! We are hard at work getting your distance learning materials ready. While you are waiting, I encourage you to make something creative with a few of the paper towel and toilet paper cores that are piling up around your house. Take a picture of what you make, and send it to me:

Love,

Mr. Conrad
