Children and Foster Status: List all children in the household in Section 1.

- Indicate that a child is in foster care by checking the box.
- Include any regular income, for example supplemental security income (SSI), to children other than foster children. Do not list occasional earnings like babysitting.

Case Number: Complete Section 2 if any household member currently participates in one of the programs listed in that section. If Section 2 is completed, skip Section 3 (adult names and incomes).

Adults/Household Incomes: List all adult household members, whether related or not, in Section 3. Include an adult who is temporarily away, such as a student away at college. Do not complete Section 3 if a case number was provided in Section 2, or if the application is for foster children only.

List each adult household member's gross incomes (not take-home pay) and how often each income is received. For example, "W" for Weekly.

- List gross incomes before deductions.
- If an income varies, list the amount usually received.
- For farm/self-employment income only, list net income after subtracting business expenses.
- Examples of "other income" to include in the last column are farm/self-employment, Veterans benefits and disability benefits.

- Check the “No Income” column after a person’s name if they have no income.

Do not include as income: foster care payments, federal education benefits, MFIP payments, combat pay, or value of assistance received from SNAP, WIC, FDPIR or Military Privatized Housing Initiative.

Signature: The form must be signed and dated by an adult household member in Section 5.

Privacy Act Statement/How Information Is Used

We will use your information to determine if your child is eligible for free or reduced-price economic status for purposes of state reporting. We may share your eligibility information with education, health, and nutrition programs to help them evaluate, fund or determine benefits for their programs, auditors for program reviews, and law enforcement officials to help them look into violations of program rules. At public school districts, each student's economic status is also recorded on a statewide computer system used to report student data to the Minnesota Department of Education as required by state law. The Minnesota Department of Education uses this information to: (1) administer state and federal programs, (2) calculate compensatory revenue for public schools; and, (3) evaluate the quality of the state's educational program. Children who are eligible for free and reduced-price economic status may be eligible for Minnesota Health Care Programs. Your child's eligibility status may be shared with Minnesota Health Care Programs, unless you tell us not to share your information by checking the box in Section 4 of the application. You are not required to share information for this purpose and your decision will not affect your child's economic status as determined on this for.
